

Construction/Retail Sales Position

Homestead Structures, New Holland, PA, offers a wide range of Amish-built custom structures for outdoor living spaces including pool houses, storage sheds, pavilions, garages, tiny houses, cabins, and barns.

Founded as a family business in 2003, Homestead Structures provides families with quality and distinctive structures that fulfill their personal needs and provide a place to build relationships and magnify a sense of peace and joy in their homes. With a passion to help people thrive, the Homestead team operates by biblical principles and strives to put God first in all things.

We are currently seeking a Sales Representative who will build relationships, consult, and generate sales growth.

You will be responsible for prospecting/lead follow-up, helping homeowners to plan and design every aspect of their building, collaborating with estimators to draft an accurate quote, communicating with and answering questions from customers, and acting as a liaison between the customer and drafter to ensure everything the customer wants is included in the final order.

Our ideal candidate will have inside or outside sales experience in remodeling, additions, or other construction-related fields. We're looking for a self-motivated, people-oriented, strong communicator with basic computer skills and strong attention to detail.

If you are knowledgeable about construction, enjoy networking and building relationships, and want to join a faith-based company that listens to and values it's employees, please consider joining our team.
