

Special Trades Position

Homestead Structures provides a unique operating system. Here a crystal clear vision is seen (we know where we are going), traction & momentum is felt (people, tools, disciplines, and accountability are in place to execute the vision), and team health thrives.

We design and build high-quality outdoor living structures. Due to an increasing demand for our buildings, we are in need of an experienced builder to perform various trades at our location in New Holland.

If you are looking for a challenging position that requires you to be a “Jack-of-all-Trades” – look no further!

Primarily, you will be responsible for performing various types of work including Electrical, Interiors, Stone veneers, Standing Seam and more as required by the daily work schedule.

We need a highly organized and detailed builder with 10+ yrs experience in the general construction industry! If you enjoy doing multiple trades and love the satisfaction of a job well done, this job is for you! In exchange for your hard work, Homestead Structures offers full-time work, competitive pay, vacation and paid holidays and other benefits.

Our culture drives our passion for excellence in every customer experience. As an Amish-owned business with an employee-focused environment, we take pride in our quality work, are relentless about improving what we do, practice integrity in all aspects, and accountability for our actions. It is these values and business culture that sets us apart from our competition. Find out more at www.homesteadstructures.com.
